CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

Ron Irvin

1939 - 2021

REMEMBERING Ron

Ronald Lee “Ron” Irvin, age 81 years, of Jefferson City, Mo., passed away Monday, May 31, 2021 surrounded by his family.

He was born on August 28, 1939 in Brinktown, Mo., the son of Victor O. and Alvina E. (Mueller) Irvin. He was married on November 25, 1961 in Jefferson City, Mo. to Marion “Renee” Fricke who preceded him in death on February 5, 2012.

A lifelong resident of Jefferson City, Ron was a 1957 graduate of Helias High School.

Ron was a dedicated and talented craftsman. His mathematical and goal driven mind allowed him to teach himself the art of cabinet making. Ron’s attention to detail made his work second to none and he was dedicated to making sure every detail was executed with precision. He proudly owned and operated Ron Irvin Custom Cabinets for over 28 years.

Ron was a man of faith which shaped many of the principles he lived by. He was an active member at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church.

Ron was a committed provider for his family, often working multiple jobs to support them and ensure his wife’s ability to stay home to raise their girls. He took pride in keeping his property and home well-manicured. He was a hard worker and believed that if you were going to do something, you should put all your effort in to be sure it is done right. Ron loved the water and especially enjoyed trips to Destin, Fl. or the Lake of the Ozarks. He had an unmatched sense of humor and was very quick witted. He was always ready with a joke or a good comeback, a skill he exercised healthily even in his final days.

Ron was a selfless man with a helping heart, always lending a hand or giving to those in need. Ron was a respected man in all facets of his life. He was a reliable man of his word, genuine in every action, dedicated to those he loved and truly impacted the world in a positive way.

Survivors include: three daughters, Shannon Baker (Richard) of Kansas City, Mo., Paige Keever (Tony) of Frankenstein, Mo. and Brooke Gaudin (Larry) of Kansas City, Mo.; two brothers, Lonnie Irvin (Carolyn) of St. Louis, Mo. and Jr. Irvin of Jefferson City, Mo.; one sister, Connie Windsor (Larry) of Jefferson City, Mo.; seven grandchildren, Annie Gaudin, Rylie Keever, Charlie Baker, Sam Gaudin, Alison Keever, Cara Baker and Nathan Keever.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his loving wife of 50 years, Renee; and one brother, Richard Irvin.
