Live on Forever

by The Afters

Angela loved this song. Knowing these promises and lyrics were on her heart and mind bring us comfort.

Dark days are gonna go away
They won't have the final say
These bones were always gonna fade
'Cause we were made for another place
The moment of our final breath
When all our fears are put to rest
Every tear will disappear
Heaven is real

We're gonna live on
Forever, forever, forever
We're gonna live on
Forever, forever, forever
We are not where we belong
We have a hope we're gonna live on
Forever, forever, forever

Breathing air we have never breathed
We'll see colors we've never seen
Every sound like a symphony
Rising up as the angels sing
The arms of grace are open wide
The face of love before our eyes
Where every tear will disappear
Heaven is real

Our hearts have been set in motion
For something more, for something more Than we could ever imagine
There's so much more, there's so much more

We are not where we belong
We have a hope we're gonna live on
Forever, forever, forever

REMEMBERING Angela

Angela Lynn Meredith, age 50, of Jefferson City, Mo., passed away Monday, March 7, 2022 at SSM Health St. Mary's Hospital.

Angela was born on April 22, 1971 in Kansas City, Mo., the daughter of Roger William and Linda Dean (Baker) Hatfield. She was married on October 3, 1998 at First Baptist Church in Jefferson City, Mo. to Gregory Gene Meredith, who survives.

A lifelong resident of Jefferson City, Angela was a 1989 graduate of Jefferson City High School. She went on to earn her Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education and Early Childhood Development from Southwest Baptist University in Bolivar, Mo.

Angela's successful career in education started with a few years each at Cole County Elementary - Russellville, St. Joseph Cathedral School and Southwest Elementary, respectively. From there, she joined the staff as a teacher at South Elementary, where she taught for over 20 years. While teaching, Angela's goal was to create a classroom community where all students felt welcome, safe, and excited to learn. She mastered this goal beautifully. Angela spent many hours planning and searching Pinterest and teacher vlogs for ideas to accomplish this goal. Like many hardworking educators, she invested significant time and money on her classroom and students. Target and TJ Maxx will take a financial hit with her departure. It was her passion for kids and her extraordinary skills at classroom management that helped her students succeed.

Angela was a member of First Baptist Church. Her deep faith and trust in the Lord gives her family tremendous peace now.

Family was always the center of Angela's life and quality time with them was extremely important to her. Supporting Blake and Morgan with their activities always brought a smile to her face, especially passionately cheering for Blake during basketball games. She and Morgan were shopping and movie buddies. She loved vacations with all her family to Branson, Myrtle Beach, and Disneyworld in Florida and family trips with her puppy, Bentley, for ice cream at Zesto's. Angela had many fond memories of their family camping trips when the kids were younger. Some of her favorite times were the conversations outside on the patio with her parents who live next door and her sister and family meals and gatherings over the holidays.

When she wasn't focused on her kids or her classroom, Angela could be found with her nose in a book. She was a fan of Danielle Steele and Mary Higgins Clark, and also finished all versions of Chicken Soup for the Soul. Angela was into suspense shows, with NCIS being her favorite. While she was normally watching Blake or Morgan in their activities, she was also a professional sports fan, loudly cheering on her favorite basketball teams and the Chiefs.

Angela was kind, gentle and always searching for ways to pour into those around her and to be the best person she could be. Her beautiful legacy continues in the hundreds of students she educated and believed in, the amazing staff she worked with at South over the years, and her family who loves her beyond words.

Survivors include: her husband of 23 years, Greg Meredith; two children, Blake

Meredith and Morgan Meredith, both of the home; two step-daughters, Meghan Knife (Travis) of Gilbert, Arizona and Malinda Mathis (Kyle) of Jefferson City, Mo.; her parents, Roger and Linda Hatfield of Jefferson City, Mo.; her sister, Melissa Hatfield of Jefferson City, Mo.; sister-in-law, Joni Zumwalt (Daniel) of Columbia, Mo.; two step-grandchildren, Elayne and Logan Knife; an aunt, Carol Ann Baker of Jefferson City, Mo.; an uncle, James Baker (Judy) of Chattanooga, Tn.; her sweet puppy, Bentley; and many cousins.

Angela was preceded in death by her in-laws, Gene and Lois Meredith.
